HEAD COACH LARRY COURVILLE

Position: Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations

Age: 36 (04-02-75)

Home Town: Timmins, Ontario

Resides: Palmyra, Pennsylvania

Larry Courville embarks upon his third full season as the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Royals in 2011-12. Last season, under Courville's guidance, the Royals established a new team record with forty-four regular season wins and captured the Atlantic Division regular season title. In both of Courville's full seasons as the Royals head coach, the team qualified for the playoffs, and in the 2010 playoffs the team went on the longest playoff run in team history—all the way to the Conference Finals before getting eliminated in game seven. Courville has coached the Royals in more playoff games than any other coach in team history. Courville was instated as the sixth head coach in Royals' history, when he took the reigns of the team on January 6, 2009. At that time, the team had played thirty-four games into the 2008-09 ECHL regular season and had compiled a record of 9-23-2. Over the final thirty-eight games of the season, Courville led the Royals to a 15-19-4 record. This stint with the Royals marks the first pro head coaching assignment for Courville, who served as the general manager, facility director, and hockey operations supervisor of a Lancaster, Pennsylvania ice rink for over two years after completing his final full season as a player in 2006.

Courville, a third round pick of the Vancouver Canucks in 1995, played in more than 600 pro hockey games, including 33 in the National Hockey League with the Canucks. During his playing career, Courville, who served as team captain during no fewer than six of his nine full-time playing seasons, racked up over three hundred points and a thousand penalty minutes and was named as the team's Most Valuable Player for the Syracuse Crunch of the American Hockey League in 1996-97. Prior to turning pro, Courville, who originally hails from Timmins, Ontario, was twice a member of Team Canada Gold Medal championships in international play, including the 1995 World Junior U-20 Championship, during which he played an integral role on his home country's team that went undefeated during the world's premiere amateur tournament.

Courville played all or parts of five different seasons with the Royals, starting with a short stint during the team's inaugural year (2001-02) and culminating with ten games played on an 'as-needed' basis during the 2007-08 season. In addition to earning the respect of his teammates and the admiration of the fans in Reading for his gritty and relentless style of play, Courville also received the Royals' Unsung Hero Award at the conclusion of the 2004-05 season and the team's Heart Award in 2005-06. On October 22, 2006, Courville became the first person ever inducted into the Reading Eagle Wall of Honor at the Sovereign Center, which honors members of the Royals' organization who have made distinctive contributions to the success of the team. Perhaps not surprisingly, on the day that he was inducted into the Wall of Honor, Courville dressed for Royals and played an instrumental part in the team's 5-3 victory over the Pensacola Ice Pilots, which included scoring a late-game goal to ice the team's win.

Larry and his wife, Shannon, and their two young daughters (MaKenna and Morgan) and son (Mason), currently reside in Palmyra, Pennsylvania.
